SPECIFIC—[redacted] of [redacted] [redacted] "W No. 1"

Ref: [redacted]

1. Transmitted herewith as attachments A and B are the AIS message of 9 December, and SW No. 4, sent to the AIS by Subject on 13 December 1967.

2. As noted in the SW message attached, Subject resolved the matter of his passport as he explained it in the message. The fact that Subject is about to get a new document should offset any AIS unhappiness created by Subject's failure to destroy the old document as instructed.

3. The HSOFF matter, explained in reference cable, when suggested to Subject as something he ought to report to the AIS, had the opposite effect on Subject to that given in paragraph 1, LIA 4430. When it was explained to him that it was necessary for him to report this information to the AIS because a) Kasimir ZAMORSKI might be a Polish or an AIS agent, b) ZAMORSKI might tell others about HSOFF and the AIS might find out about her as well as the fact that Subject knows her role and c) HSOFF might write to the Polish service without the knowledge of the Americans, revealing her contact with Subject, Subject said he appreciated our willingness to sacrifice another operation for the sake of safeguarding him. He agreed there was no choice in the matter but regretted that we perhaps lost a good double agent case. Subject's main worry would come to HSOFF as the result of his report to the AIS. The undersigned assured him there was nothing to worry about, that she probably will live "happily ever after in Germany". As for the loss of a D/A case, the undersigned stressed the fact that Subject's case was one worth making such sacrifices for. Further, uncovering a D/A case for the AIS would, and would be, raise his prestige immensely. So much for HSOFF.

4. The information reported by ARAPAGIA I, especially that pertaining to the "MATTER" letter, seems to mirror [redacted] ARAPAGIA I's version of the affair. As expected to be submitted in the near future by Henry D. PHILABAIN, ARAPAGIA I seems to have reached the conclusion that either Subject for East. Mr. Alfried (of the German Foreign Office, Bonn, 24 May 1907, 1914-1918). He is a member of the UNR. BRAUNING is a member of the German Foreign Office as a diplomat and therefore has influence on German Foreign policy. The UNR is about LEVINSKY, which was visited by USGAI, was given to Ernst C. SCHERPKY. BRAUNING said that SCHERPKY passed a copy of this text to ALERHAUER's office. LEVINSKY, during his visit to Bonn, was forced to make public explanation (about his alleged remarks with respect to the German-Polish border).

ABCAPELIN I (address included) has a German girl friend named "MAIER". This woman, whose true and full name is known only to ABCAPELIN I (Note: Subject means he does not know it), received a typed anonymous letter in the middle of November in which she was warned to sever her relationship with ABCAPELIN I because something unpleasant is about to happen to him. ABCAPELIN I reported this matter to the criminal police, who, after questioning him several times, informed him they had already found out who the author of the letter is through matching the type with other things written on the same typewriter. The Germans consider the matter to be political. ABCAPELIN I maintains constant but discreet contact with Volodymyr KOZAK (DOB: 1 Aug 1907, POB: Galicia, Poland). There are rumors that ABCAPELIN I has a financial interest in KOZAK's gasoline station. From Mikola CHEBOTARIY (DOB: 24 Oct 1894; POB: Poltava, Ukraine) it has been learned that NYCE, author of an anti-Ukrainian Nationalist brochure who lives in New York, is being investigated because of information reported about him by a Ukrainian nationalist and is supposed to be deported to Germany. Jakob RAKOVITSKY (DOB: approx. 1912; POB: Galicia) has been in charge of intelligence for the OUN/MELNYK organization for the past half year, and keeps in close contact with Osip BOYKUNYK. Officially, he is the chauffeur for the prelate of the Greek Catholic church, Petro HOLINSKY (DOB: ca 1892; POB: Peremyshl, Ukraine), through whom he has access to information about Vatican Ukrainian policy.
End. Greetings. B.
